Acts 6

¹Now in these days when the disciples were increasing in number, a complaint by the Hellenists arose against the Hebrews because their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution. ²And the twelve summoned the full number of the disciples and said, “It is not right that we should give up preaching the word of God to serve tables. ³Therefore, brothers, pick out from among you seven men of good repute, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we will appoint to this duty. ⁴But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word.” ⁵And what they said pleased the whole gathering, and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch. ⁶These they set before the apostles, and they prayed and laid their hands on them. ⁷And the word of God continued to increase, and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests became obedient to the faith.

1. Pay Attention to What Threatens Church Unity.

- Unity in the church is a gospel issue (Acts 6:2).
- Disunity should not surprise us and we must be on guard (Acts 20:29-30).

2. Take Responsibility to Protect Church Unity.

- Protecting unity is the job of the congregation (Eph. 4:3).
- Implication #1: We must own this unity as our responsibility and our stewardship.
- Implication #2: Sometimes we protect unity by overlooking certain offenses.
- Implication #3: Addressing disunity is something our leaders can help us do.

3. Be Reluctant to Take Sides.

- The danger of factions in the church (Gal. 5:20; 1 Cor. 11:19).
- Be careful not to implicitly ask our leaders to take sides when we bring problems to them.
- Spending time with people on the “other side” will help you avoid taking sides.

4. Seek and Recommend Structural Solutions.

- Look for structural, tangible solutions when you sense unity problems.
- Consider overlooking particular offenses that are without specific solutions.
- Pray for our deacons.
- Be careful not to complain (Phil. 2:14).
